

Happy Thanksgiving from all of us at the Women's Lunch Place

Dear Friend,

On Thursday, the Women's Lunch Place will serve a grand Thanksgiving feast to our Guests with music and decorations to boot! As you gather with your family and friends over turkey and pumpkin pie and give thanks for your blessings, we also ask that you think of those who may not have this luxury. The Women's Lunch Place has a few programs in which you can help make the holidays more joyful for our Guests. We thank you more than ever for continuing to support our organization this December and as we make way for 2012!

YOU do the shopping and WE will do the wrapping!

On Monday November 28th and Wednesday December 21st, WLP volunteers will be wrapping gifts outside of Barnes and Noble located inside the Shops at Prudential Center (straight up the stairs from the Cheesecake Factory). No matter where you purchased your gifts, we will wrap them for you! Monetary donations accepted and all go to the Women's Lunch Place.

Shop for a Cause at The Fairmont Store

On Thursday, December 1, 2011, from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., feel good about your holiday shopping as 15% portion of your purchase on that evening will be donated to The Women's Lunch Place. The Fairmont Store offers a variety of exclusive products including bamboo loungewear, eco-chic Couture Planet handbags crafted from newspapers recycled from our guestrooms, and outerwear from Massachusetts designer Tasha Poluzzi. Take Fairmont home with boxes and loose leaf teas, Miller Harris toiletries, plush robes and luxurious pillows. And, don't forget your Catie Copley children's books, stuffed toys and t-shirts. Fairmont Store gift concierges can help you make a perfect selection. Seasonal refreshments will be served.
